Dr. Seye Abimbola recently obtained an MBChB from Obafemi Awolowo University, Ile-Ife, Nigeria in 2007. He edited his medical school journal, IFEMED from 2005-06 and he has also been an international student advisor to studentBMJ since 2005. He has several articles in both publications, one of which is the studentBMJ article, "Making Neuroanatomy Easy", which he co-authored with Prof. Adelola Adeloje. He was awarded the 2007 BMJ Clegg Scholarship, which allowed him to spend eight weeks at the British Medical Journal offices in London learning about medical journalism and research. He's been a visiting student at the Functional Imaging Laboratory, Institute of Neurology, Queen Square, London and intends starting a PhD in neuroscience, once he is through with internship.
